VERY REV. WILLIAM L. KELEHER, S.J.

It is always a pleasure to answer the call of your Alumni Secretary and put together a few ideas to bring you the latest reports from the Heights. It is my only opportunity to meet those of you whom I hope to meet at Class Reunions.

February saw our various enrollments rise again, so that now we number among our students more than since the highest enrollment of the pre-war days. Unhappily, we could not welcome all who made application. Our only hope is that September will see us in a position to accept all who qualify.

Our latest building, a combination classroom and auditorium structure, will serve many purposes. And we hope to add another and larger classroom building to our establishment on Freshman Field, thus assuring ourselves of sufficient space for September.

This semester we inaugurated the retirement and insurance plan for our lay faculties, thus fulfilling one more of our pledges and one of our fondest hopes for those whose years of loyal, devoted service cannot be measured.

The plans for the building which will house the School of Business Administration are being completed and we hope to break ground for this building soon. I feel certain that all will approve the design of this structure, one that will be in complete harmony with the present buildings.

On February 2nd we inaugurated our "Candlemas Lectures," a series of annual lectures on Christian Literature. The response to our beginning was heartening and we hope to publish the lectures each year, to bring the name of Boston College to all colleges and universities as a leader in the field that is so important, so vital in the field of Catholic Education.

To all of us the most important activity at the Heights today is our Building Fund. Elsewhere in this issue you will find the detailed-up-to-the-minute report. As I have told many of you at Class reunions, the challenge of last June is still a challenge. We cannot be critical of others until we have proven ourselves loyal supporters of Alma Mater. We cannot ask others to further a cause to which we have not contributed. We must not expect others to carry a burden that is properly ours—that of fostering and promoting the interest of Catholic Education. I can only hope that the next few months will see our program through to a glorious finish before we launch our Public Drive.

NEW CLASS ENTERS COLLEGE

When a new Freshman Class entered this month the total enrollment of students in the College of Arts and Sciences and the Business School rose to over 3400. Before the war the normal enrollment was approximately 1500. 540 Freshmen started classes, including 165 in the Business School. Of the 540, 80% were veterans.

As a result the College is severely taxed for space and every member of the Faculty has a heavy program. Classes are now being conducted in the Philomatheia Club, the Committee room in the Library, formerly a sanctum sanctorum, and in one of the temporary buildings on Freshman Field.

A new building on Freshman Field is being rushed to completion to ease conditions. Formerly used by the Coast Guard on Gallup's Island, Boston Harbor, it will contain an auditorium seating 1600 and classrooms.

ON THE AIR

For several months the Boston College Faculty Panel under the direction of Rev. David R. Dunigan, S.J., Chairman of the Department of Education, has been broadcast from WBMS, the new radio station in Boston. The half-hour program is at 3:30 Sunday afternoon. On each broadcast three members of the Faculty and a guest discuss a subject of current interest pertaining to the field of education.

Boston College is also a member of the Lowell Institute Cooperative Broadcasting Council, an organization broadcasting Adult Education courses over WMEX, WCOP and WHDH in Boston. As well as contributing to the financial support of the Council the College has offered the services of members of the Faculty.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings over WMEX is broadcast "Our Children," a program supervised by Father Dunigan which studies the causes of school failures.

On Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings the program "Great Books" is broadcast. Among the speakers is Rev. Leo P. McCauley, S.J., Professor of Classics.

Consult the newspapers for broadcast schedules.

ELLIOT NORTON HONORED

Elliot Norton, dramatic critic of the Boston Post, was awarded the first annual Citation of Merit by the Institute of Adult Education on January 7 at the New England Mutual Hall. The citation reads: "Boston College confers on Elliot Norton the first annual Citation of Merit awarded by the Institute of Adult Education in recognition of the outstanding personal integrity and high ideals of Christian humanism which have characterized his long service to the com-

Entrance examinations for those intending to enter the Freshman Class in September will be held on May 10.

Applications will be received no later than Tuesday, April 1.

The Most Reverend Gerald Shaughnessy, S.M., S. T.D., Bishop of Seattle, who graduated with the Class of 1909, received the degree of Doctor of Laws at a convocation in the Library auditorium on November 21.

The text of the citation reads: "The Most Reverend Bishop of Seattle, Gerald Shaughnessy, Alumnus of Boston College of the Society of Jesus, now a member of the Society of Mary a zealous educator of youth a skilled teacher of sacred theology an accomplished and versatile writer a holy most distinguished prelate his Alma Mater, Boston College, favoring and fostering as a pledge of her maternal love joyfully exalts to the grade of Doctor of Laws urgently beseeching the All Perfect Omnipotent God the richest blessings upon him."

FREDERICK W. O'BRIEN, M.D., 1920

Dr. Frederick W. O'Brien was the recipient of the Janeway Medal at the annual meeting of the American Radium Society, held in San Francisco June 29th, 1946. He delivered the Janeway Lecture, sponsored by the Society in memory of Henry Harrington Janeway's pioneer work in the field of radium therapy. The lecturers are selected because of their outstanding scientific contributions and each is presented with the Janeway Medal.

On December 5th, in Chicago, Dr. O'Brien was elected president of the Radiological Society of North America at its annual meeting, following his return from Havana where he attended the Second Inter-American Congress of Radiology as a delegate from the United States.

Dr. O'Brien married Sara Green of Everett in 1921. They have three children: Dr. Fred, Jr., a graduate of Holy Cross, '43; Richard, Tufts, '46; and Marie Therese, Trinity, Washington, '46. He is consultant to the Tumor Clinic at the Boston City Hospital, radiologist to the Cambridge City Hospital and professor emeritus of Radiology at Tufts College Medical School.

WILLIAM J. SHEEHAN, 1922

William J. Sheehan, for the past ten years public relations director of Eastern Gas and Fuel Associates, is engaged as a consultant in public, employee, stockholder and industrial relations in the Park Square Building, Boston.

A native of Cambridge, Sheehan spent several years in newspaper work in Denver, Colorado and other cities. He returned here in 1924 to do publicity work and in 1928 joined Doremus & Co. advertising agency where he became copywriter.

In 1937 he went to Eastern Gas and Fuel Associates, which has activities in eighteen states, to handle all phases of public relations work. He is the author of numerous articles for trade and professional magazines and a frequent speaker on public relations before business groups.

The first all-professional course in public relations ever given in this country was organized and directed by him two years ago under auspices of the Advertising Club of Boston. For these lectures he brought to Boston many of the most prominent public relations men in the United States.

Mr. Sheehan, who lives in Newton Centre, is the father of five children, the oldest of whom is now in Tokyo with the U. S. Army. Mrs. Sheehan is the former Emilie C. Snow of Brookline.

HONORABLE DANIEL M. KEYES, 1939

Daniel Keyes was appointed judge of the Chicopee District Court November 19, 1946, by former Governor Tobin. He is the youngest judge to be appointed in the history of Massachusetts.

Attending Classical High School, Springfield, Judge Keyes entered Boston College. After graduation he went to Boston University Law School where he received his LL.B. in 1942. In October, 1942, he was admitted to the Bar. From May, 1942 until July, 1946, he served as Acting Register of Deeds, Hampden County.

He is married to the former Gertrude W. Dewire of Somerville, sister of Rev. John J. Dewire, '42, and has two children.

THOMAS J. LAMOND, 1942

One of the younger graduates engaged in chemistry, Thomas Lamond is associated with the Bolta Company, Lawrence. He has evolved a formulation for the vulcanization of synthetic rubber. He has also been experimenting in the development of elastomeric polyvinyl compound.

EDWARD A. AARON, 1931

Like many who perform their duties quietly and well is Edward Aaron, a contact representative with the Veterans Administration, 17 Court Street, Boston. Ed was one of the first to join the staff there and during the recent busy years has rendered valuable service to thousands of veterans including many Alumni.

During the war he served as an agent in Army Intelligence. He and his wife, the former Eleanor F. Blagdon (Emmanuel, '29) live in Charlestown.

Building Fund

In the November Issue of our Alumni News, your Alumni President addressed to you what he hoped would be a final word about the Building Fund and the response to his appeal was particularly encouraging. My words here are merely to fill in for him and to acquaint you with the progress that has been made to date.

The class lists will speak for themselves. In all cases these lists have grown in a very substantial fashion and we are confident that the June issue of the News will bring us the word that we have succeeded in our efforts.

However, there are still too many from whom we have heard nothing. These are the men we must reach if our goal is to be secured. And so to them we make another plea. Even though you cannot make a substantial contribution today, the promise that you will do so later will help us in our plans. A Boston College man's pledge will be redeemed. To know now that we shall have your support will enable us to carry out our plans soon.

Let me take the occasion to say to those loyal and zealous workers, who have made possible the figures of today, a very sincere word of thanks and a hearty God bless you! I can only hope and pray that the as yet unheard from Alumni will prove as loyal in the days ahead.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM L. KELEHER, S. J.
President

ONE FOURTH

The gymnasium is to serve as a lasting memorial to the Boston College men who made the supreme sacrifice for our Country. To be a fitting tribute it must be the spontaneous offering of the entire Alumni. Can 7,000 men have forgotten?

JOHN S. KEOHANE

12 Acacia Avenue, Chestnut Hill 67

☛ Congratulations to:

Father Tom Heagney, on his promotion to St. Patrick's West, Lynn;

Father Tom Devlin, on his promotion to St. Anthony's, Cohasset;

Father Jim Welch, on his promotion to Sacred Heart, Natick.

Father Tom Ford of Saugus, delivered an elequent eulogy at the funeral of Msgr. Delaney of Natick. We heard recently from Father Leo Hughes who is now a Dominican Prior in Chicago. He sends best wishes to all.

Father Jim Kelley, S. J., Dean of the Business School, is being overwhelmed with applications of new students.

We regret the passing, after a long illness, of Eddie Lynch whose genial smile and kind manner will be missed by all who knew him. R. I. P. The Solemn High Mass was sung by our Class President, Msgr. Eric MacKenzie, assisted by Msgr. Bob Barry as Deacon.

Father Charlie Brown of Belfast,

Maine, reports that he is recovering rapidly from a serious illness which laid him up for a few months.

At this writing, our class roster is composed of 21 priests and 19 laymen.

Our next class get-together will take place after Easter. At this dinner, we will include the class of 1910 B. C. H., and plans are under way to make it a special occasion. Nota bene!

The B. C. Building Fund Drive is still on. Will all who have not sent in their subscription or pledge please do so soon, and keep our Class high on the list of contributors?

5 The Class dinner was held at the Engineers' Club on January 30 with 35 members present. In the annual election Joe Scolponeti was elected President. Art Falvey, Jack Atkinson and Father Louis Logue, S. J., were appointed to a committee to plan our next get together in June. The head table was abolished and there were no prepared speeches but of course the members were allowed freedom of speech.

Jack Atkinson gave us an interesting talk on his recent European travels.

Father Ed Corrigan came up from Keansburg, N. J. He's the senior pastor of the Class.

Father Dalton is doing grand work as pastor of St. Kevin's Church in Dorchester. He was the first in the Class to be appointed pastor.

Al Brennan, Al Smith and Frank Mahoney have sons enrolled at B.C. Fred Gillis has 5 children in college, two boys at B. C., and two boys and a girl at B. U.

Father Bill Deasy came from Long Island.

Our honorary member, Ed McCarthy, won a car at the March of Dimes Ball at the Boston Garden last month.

Personal note: Young Jim O'Brien won the Stylus short story contest at the College recently.

Father Edwin Walsh is stationed at St. Joseph's, Woburn.

Father Joseph Dunn is at Saint Joseph's, Holbrook.

Kindly remember in your prayers the brother of Father Joseph Kelly of Weston.

Here is some news about Joe McOwen's daughters. Patricia J., 18, has been awarded a $450-a-year scholarship for four years in any approved college in New York State. Mary Elaine, a senior at the College of New Rochelle, is the recipient of a similar $200-a-year scholarship.

Major Frank Hinchey, U. S. A., is stationed in Rothenburg in Northern Bavaria. He has been almost three years overseas, two years of which have been spent in Military Government. A letter from him says in part: "Believe it or not I often think of my classmates of '16 and have many times regretted that my living in the middle west for so many years and during the last five years my service in the Army has kept me from contacting them. I hope upon my exit from the Army that I shall be able to settle down somewhere near the Hub of all things and renew old friendships (I still assume they are friends)."

✠ Father Joe Quigley has passed on to his reward. In his short period as pastor of St. Joseph's Church in South Lincoln he endeared himself to his parishioners by those qualities and talents that distinguished him as an undergraduate, seminarian and priest. Among the clergy assisting Archbishop Cushing who officiated at the Pontifical Requiem Mass were Rev. Frank Shields, Rev. Frank Egan, Rev. Bill Reilly, Rev. Frank Murphy, Rev. Joe Keenan, Rev. John Connolly. Present at the Mass were John Flynn, John Mahoney, Tom Kinahan, Ed McCabe and Roland Mahoney. Among the classmates who availed themselves of an opportunity to pay their last respects to Father Quigley were Jack Doyle, Ralph Quinn, Walter Durnan, Bill Reid, Joe Dee, Marty Higgins, Jack McCarty. To the members of Fr. Quigley's family, including his aged mother, we extend our most sincere sympathy. May he rest in peace.

Father Maurice Dullea officiated at the Solemn Requiem Mass for his sister Katherine who for several years was a teacher in the Boston Public Schools. To her mother with whom she lived and her two brothers, Father Dullea and Edward we extend our most sincere sympathy. May she rest in peace.

Jack Fihelly paid a brief visit to his home in Washington after having prepared the case for the prosecution against the war criminals in Tokyo. Upon his return to Tokyo he will listen to the arguments for the defense. Local papers have carried long reports of interviews which he gave based on his experience in the preparation of the case against Tojo with whom he had many meetings.

Frank Heanue has been advanced to Assistant Advertising Manager of the Boston Globe. Frank has had several years of experience with large metropolitan dailies both in Boston and New York.

Father Bert Shea, after having served many years as Assistant at St. James' Church on Harrison Ave., has been appointed Parish Priest of St. Joseph's Church, Kingston.

Father John Morrissey, recently Assistant at St. Mary's Parish, Waltham, has been appointed Parish Priest of St. Ann's Parish West Newbury.

Father Frank Shields has been transferred as Parish Priest from St. Margaret's Church, Burlington to St. Zepherin's Church, Cochituate.

Father Frank Caffrey, M.M., is now at the Maryknoll Seminary, Clark Summit, Pa. Father Caffrey has moved many times in recent years after having spent many years in California. Now that he is nearer Boston than he has been for a long time there is a chance that we may see him sometime soon.

Jack Fleming in his Christmas Greetings to the scribe and Class reports all the family in good health down in Houston.

Ed Tracy is back on his job again but is taking things easy. He is happy to report that son Tom is back home after his service with the Merchant Marine.

"Porky" Flynn plans a Spring meeting of the class. Keep your eyes open for the letterman and get your reply back to Porky with your assurance that you'll be with him.

Lester Shea is in good health once again after an illness lasting two years.

While we may be pleased with the position of the class as having the highest position with respect to contributions to the Building Fund Drive let us realize that in percentage of the class contributing we are in eleventh place. Only 32 members have made a pledge or contribution.

WILLIAM M. CASHIN

 Very Rev. John J. McEleney, S. J., Provincial of the New England Province, returned last month from Rome and the Jesuit mission in Baghdad.

Very Rev. Edward V. Stanford, O.S.A., is a member of the U. S. National Commission of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization. Last month he was awarded the Navy Department "Certificate of Appreciation for meritorious personal service during World War II." He is Executive Director of the new "Catholic Commission on Intellectual and Cultural Affairs."

Dr. Jack Creed of Haverhill and North Conway casts one vote for a Class dinner in the early Spring. His interests are golfing and his airplane.

Charlie Sexton also wishes a dinner. He's the president of the Milton B. C. Club.

Tom Reynolds reported from Chicago. "No change in status. One wife, six children—the oldest a junior at Georgetown. Only classmate I have seen in years was Dan Murphy who passed through Chicago recently."

Father Tom Brennan, S. J., after serving as a chaplain in the Army, is treasurer of Cranwell Preparatory School in Lenox.

Captain Clarence Pike, USN, is Assistant Chief of Staff, 1st Naval District, Boston.

Heard from Jim Donovan, sub-master at the Fairmount School, Hyde Park. Golf is his specialty.

After a short leave of absence Tom Phelan is back at his old stand with the Mass. Department of Education. J. Paul Lynch wrote from New York where he is associated with Wellington & Company, 120 Broadway. At the New York B. C. Club meeting last month he saw Dan Harkins, John Sargent, Phil Shea and Harold Anderson.

Here in January when the Canisius basketball team played in Boston was James Crowdie. He's doing a fine job at the Buffalo Jesuit school.

The number of cards received back was a little disappointing. It's not too late to send them along. Let me have your opinion about a dinner in April, after Lent.

FRANCIS D. SHEA

Rev William H. Harrington, Director of Charities in the Fall River Diocese, is rapidly recovering from a recent operation. During his convalescence several of the class dropped in to see the former "Varsity two miler" and to extend their best wishes.

Three of our reverend classmates have been named pastors. Heartiest congratulations and best wishes to Rev. Thomas E. Conlon, St. Joseph's Church, South Lincoln; Rev. Dennis J. Fitzpatrick, Saint Margaret's Church, Burlington; Rev. John J. Scollan, St. Ann's Church, West Bridgewater.

The secretary is receiving reservations for the Annual Alumni Retreat at Campion Hall, North Andover, June 6-8. The return of our enthusiastic younger Alumni from service in the armed forces will produce even greater scarcity in the number of available reservations. Hence, a WARNING—make your reservation NOW.

How about your CONTRIBUTION to the Alumni Building Fund?

J. ROBERT BRAWLEY

33 Pomfret St., West Roxbury 32

As this is probably the last publication of the "Alumni News" before the Alumni drive for the Building Fund is over I want to thank Joe White, Eddie Higgins, Joe Joyce and Leo Aicardi for their invaluable help in contacting the members of the Class during the "stretch drive."

In view of the importance of the drive, we are changing our notes in this issue in hopes of calling to the attention of the members of the Class, the seriousness of the situation.

We are still behind our quota.

To the men who contributed so freely and generously, the Class committee is most grateful. We ask those men who felt unable to pledge a specific amount but promised to make a donation, to please send it in now.

This is probably the last time we will be called upon to contribute to the cause of Catholic Education. We must not fail our Alma Mater.

Luke Urban has another fast basketball team at Durfee High School.

NATHANIEL J. HASENFUS

15 Kirk Street, West Roxbury 32

 Congratulations of the class to William Sheehan, who has opened his own office as consultant in public, employee, stockholder, and industrial relations.

Joseph Ford also has embarked in a career of his own after twenty-five years with Dennison's both in Framingham and in New York City. Joe has opened his own general advertising agency in the Statler Building, and he, like Bill Sheehan, may well be said to represent Boston College business men at their best.

The sympathy of the class is extended to Stephen Velardo and Timothy Collins on the passing of their mothers.

Our 25th anniversary banquet at the Vendome was well attended.

Bill Cauty did an excellent job as chairman. Among those whom I counted as present were Ed Bell, all three Collinses, Leonard Dolan, Paul Duffly, Bill Elbery, Fathers James Doyle and Leo Flynn, Paul Foisy, Joe Ford, Charles Gallagher, Al Heddermon, John Hayes, Len Healy, Charley McCarthy, Ed Madden, Fr. Joseph Meredith, Arthur Morrissey, John Norton, John Nyhan, Bill O'Brien, Bill Sheehan, Father Cornelius Sherlock, Paul Thayer, Arthur Tierney, John Toomey, Bill Wall, John White, and Matt Malloy.

By the way—good luck to Matt, Jr., erstwhile Rivers School athlete, now a member of Jack Ryder's track team.

Our classmate, Father Connie Sherlock, is now Superintendent of the Boston Parochial Schools. He is making a splendid impression on educators wherever he goes.

Walter Markham, top Elk in Lowell, is more than busy directing policies of the Elks in that section. Walter has been a power in Elk circles for many years.

Congratulations to Henry Smith, now an assistant superintendent of the Boston Public Schools in his new capacity as business manager of the school department.

Walter Graham had the most envied job in America recently. Walter was assigned by the Springfield Republican to cover the World Series—but the Republican was on strike, so Walter merely attended the series, like a Minute Man—always ready to take his gun in hand.

We regret to report that Father John Consodine is very ill at his home, but are happy to report that George McKim is fully recovered. Seen at the Varsity Club dinner were Phil Corrigan, super-star of another era; Al Heddermon; John White; Paul Duffly; and Ed Bell. Leo Motley is back at his post in the Boston Schools after several years in the Marine Corps, where he rose to be a major.

Congratulations to Col. Frank Daly on his engagement to Miss Marion Shaughnessy of Milton. Frank has been discharged from the Army and is back at his work in Washington.

The 29th Banquet of the Class of 1918, B. C. High was held on Feb. 17 at the Hotel Bostonian. The Committee was headed by a Holy Cross man, Ned Saunders, Chairman, and Nat Hasenfus, President of 1918. B. C. men on the Committee included Rev. John Consodine, John Curtin, William Elbery, Rev. William Long, Dr. Philip McGovern, Daniel Hayes, John McKearin, Matthew Butler, Dr. Thomas O'Brien, Albert Heddermon, William Sheehan, and John White. Special guests were Rev. Francis Anderson, S. J., a Classmate just back from 11 years in Baghdad and Cairo, Father Hewitt, Father Kane, and Father McCarthy of the High School. News from afar tells us that Colonel Timothy McInerney has resigned from government service and has entered business in New York, and that Father Carroll Deady, superintendent of the Detroit Parochial Schools has been elevated to the rank of monsignor—the first monsignor of '22.

By the time you are reading this, the annual banquet of the class will have taken place at the Parker House on Wednesday, February 5. At this gathering the plans for the 24th annual Laetare Sunday Communion Breakfast were made and you will be informed about them in due time. The date this year is March 16, so circle it. We are all very sorry to hear of the illness of our classmate and president of the Alumni Association, Gaynor Wellings, who has been incapacitated by a heart attack. At the time of this writing Gaynor can have no visitors and will probably have to take a complete rest for several months.

From "The Pilot" of November 16, 1946: "Rev. Charles F. Engewald, former assistant at St. Joseph's Church, West End, Boston, has been appointed chief of chaplaincy service of Veterans Administration Branch No. 12, San Francisco. "Father Engewald, a native of Roxbury, was graduated from Boston College in 1923. After completing the course at St. John's Seminary, Brighton, he was ordained in 1928.

Joe Sweeney was recently made president of the Boston Food Brokers Association. Joe is also vice-president of Barclay, Brown, and Jones, Inc., food brokers with offices in the Board of Trade Building.

Bill Argy holds the New England franchise for membership in the Exchange Club, a new organization similar to that of Kiwanis. We could stand a little enlightenment on the subject, and hereby ask Bill for additional "info."

The McGoldrick Sales Co., Inc., 131 State St. of which our Cece is president, was recently admitted into the membership of the National Food Brokers Association, a much coveted honor. Joe Joyce '20 is now a member of the McGoldrick organization.

Tony Comerford was calling on Ed. Garrity when "Scriptor" called on the phone. He had no news of any other classmates and concluded that they must be behaving themselves as in his work with the Probation Department of the State Welfare Board no classmates were involved.

The condolences of the Class are extended to Ed Dullea whose sister died last month.

Father Edmund Barry has been appointed Chaplain at the Veterans' Administration Hospital at Perry Point, Maryland, and Father Ed Croke is now stationed at Saint Mary's, Melrose.

Bill Duffy is Superintendent of Public Works in North Andover.

 Just 35 members of the Class have made pledges for the Gymnasium Building Fund. A committee has been appointed to solicit additional pledges and contributions. We have always wanted a gymnasium, and it is up to the Alumni to provide one. The College is providing additional class room buildings and a dormitory. Let's do our part by pledging something now.

WILLIAM J. CUNNINGHAM

 Noted the picture of Bernard J. Braudis in the Sunday Herald, December 15, as one of a group of five being presented a pennant for high surplus property sales, in the War Assets Administration.

Ex-Marine John O'Brien of Cambridge has deserted the ranks of our few remaining bachelors, marrying a former Cambridge City Hall librarian.

Dr. Art Gorman now owns five. The newest is a little girl born in December. He has two girls and three boys.

Our condolences are extended to Bob O'Doherty on the death of his father. My own thanks for the expressions of condolences on the occasion of my mother's death recently.

Working for the Building Fund campaign are Murray Regan, Frank Repetto (recently married and living in Jamaica Plain), Ted McKeon and myself. Much has been done by 1926, but we feel that some fellows might want to jack up their initial pledge. We've also written personal notes to the out-of-staters. Our responses have been heart warming. Only one fellow has refused point-blank. (Name on request!)

Dick Finn is doing a good job in insurance. He has been studying for an exam to become a chartered life underwriter.

Tried to contact George Robertie but the major has re-enlisted and is now serving on the War Crimes Commission in Germany. His wife (Father Joe Browne's sister) left in December to join him. Father Joe, incidentally, had long service as an Army chaplain and is now at St. Mary's Church, Lancaster, Pa. Does anyone know where Tom Geoghan lives? Also, Charlie Day, Bernard Burns, Patrick Foley, John Poutas, Edward Hawley, Paul Ludovic, John Aiken Murray, Father Paul Rock, Frank Ross? And J. Frank Colbert's latest address?

☞ The Class of '27 can feel proud of its achievement in setting the pace for the other classes in the Alumni Fund Drive. Walter Waldron has done such a remarkable job of stimulating contributions among his classmates that he has been appointed Executive Chairman of the whole Alumni Fund Drive by Fr. Frank Sullivan, S. J. We know that Walter with his vast business experience will put the Drive over in a big way.

Joe McKenney is as busy as ever going about his duties as Director of the Physical Education Program in the Boston Public Schools. He donates plenty of his spare moments to talking to Holy Name Societies and other organizations. In April, Joe will make a trip to Seattle, Washington, as a representative of the Boston Chamber of Commerce and the School Department, in order to line up the National Health, Physical Education and Recreation Convention for Boston in 1949.

Bill Ohrenberger, assistant to Joe, finished his first year as an official in the American Professional Football League, last fall.

John Costello is practicing law and living in Medford.

Dan O'Leary head of the History Department of Girls High in Boston, had a very illuminating article in the Boston Post on January 28, on the tax situation in Boston. Dan also has a large growing family.

Tom Heffernan has been appointed by Supt. Gould to the post of Executive Research Assistant in the Boston Schools. Tom is now the father of five children, the most recent, Carol Marie, being born in November. He has opened a law office at 11 Beacon Street, Boston. Another illustrious son to receive a promotion in the Boston Schools was Bill Marnell who was advanced to the head of the Latin Department at the Boston Latin School. Bill is a man of varied talents and rare ability. He will take this latest promotion in stride.

Fr. Joe McCall continues to make a name for himself as Chaplain at the Carney Hospital. In his spare time he writes poetry. Recently he had published two poems; one appeared in the Pilot and the other in the Orphan's Friend, quarterly of the Brothers of Charity.

Joe O'Brien is still pushing Northeast Airlines up the aviation ladder. Fr. Richard McHale has been transferred from Natick to the Immaculate Conception, Malden.

The next class reunion will be held right after Easter on April 9. It was deemed advisable to postpone the scheduled February meeting until that time. See you then! In the meantime if you haven't sent in your pledge, get busy. '27 is out in front. Keep us there.

LLOYD L. DOYLE

Joe Madden a well-known story teller, entertained the group together with our secretary, Pete Carey. John Henry Morris was toastmaster.

At this writing, 33% of the Class have pledged or contributed approximately $5,300 to the Building Fund. Let's try to make it 100% regardless of the amount and show our Alma Mater we are strongly behind her. Just drop a line to the Boston College Building Fund with your pledge. The drive closes in June.

Recently out of the Army, Arthur Tuohey is now with the Veterans' Employment Service.

Fr. Jos. McGoldrick and Fr. Chris O'Neil are stationed at St. Margaret's Church in Dorchester. Fr. Joe was a Chaplain in the Marines. Xmas. Ed Healy is now the father of seven children. That good old White's milk. Pat Tompkins, our commissioner, is next with six. Jack Ryder is the proud father of a baby girl—three girls now. Looks like Regis for them.

The sympathy of the Class is extended to John McGillivray on the death of his father; also to Eddie Collins, located in New York, on the death of his mother.

Dear Classmate:

As of February 1, 1947, 125 members of our Class, 16 of them ex-men, have contributed to the Building Fund. Not counting Vin Roberts' gift of $3,000, our average gift to date is $58.97. You know how much you can give.

SA contribution to the Alumni Drive in which the Class of '29 takes deep, but pardonable pride is that received from Miss Mary Connell, sister of Father Joe Connell, S. J., of Baghdad College, Iraq. The sacrifices made by Miss Connell to contribute in her brother's name and through his class should prove an example to dilatory classmates. Miss Connell was also a contributor to the War Fund drive. As Father Joe said in a recent letter, "She lives what I preach."

Father Joe reports from Baghdad that the Maroon and Gold basketball and track teams there have made excellent records in national and city competitions. He also informs Dr. Bill Flynn, permanent honorary class president, that he barely missed seeing Father Frank McDonnell in the Spring of '44 when Father Frank landed with his Army unit on the Persian Gulf.

The class banquet was held the night after Christmas at the Hotel Bostonian where mine host John Gill, '31 welcomed more than fifty members of the Class in the largest reunion since Commencement.

President John J. Mahoney, who occupied a strategic position at the door, built up the showing of the Class in the Alumni Drive by some persuasive eloquence. About 20 members of the Class who had not previously contributed, pledged or made their donations in cash.

Welcomed back was Dr. Ed Waliacksa, who has returned to the practice of dentistry at 840-A Western avenue, Lynn, after more than two years in the Navy as a Lieutenant Commander. "Ed" has a son whom he addresses as "Admiral."

Leo Donahue, the Somerville pedagogue, who has never missed a reunion, was appointed a member of the Collegiate Board of Authority of the Massachusetts Department of Education by Governor Maurice J. Tobin in December.

Classmates were more than pleased to see Al Monahan, whose duties as a desk editor of the Boston Globe seldom have permitted him to attend the class dinners.

Dr. Ken Brown, former Class president, has been awarded the Orthopedic Fellowship at Boston's world renowned Childrens' Hospital, where he is a member of the staff. Dr. Ken, who married Mary Jane Thimm at Milwaukee on January 4, will make his home at 442 Walnut avenue, Newtonville.

Joe Tondorf, the old acolyte, and Mary Thomas were married on October 12, at St. Mary of the Hills Church, Milton. Father Jimmy McManus performed the ceremony. Joe and Mrs. Tondorf are making their home at 13 Holly street, Hingham.

Ed Lee and his wife, the former Mary Ridge, have a fifth youngster. A daughter, Susan.

Recent benedicts are Joe Kavanagh and Nick Tedesco, the old hockey star, who is now in the Newton Department of Recreation.

A stirring address by President John J. Mahoney was well received at the annual dinner. His plea for support for the Alumni Drive was punctuated by well-aimed comments by the Class members. Cheers during the address were led by Attorneys Henry Leen and Ed Lee, with assistance by Father Frank Harkins and George Donaldson. Napkins were tossed into the air to encourage the speaker on several occasions. Some of the President's more enthusiastic auditors even felt impelled to tie their napkins in attractive knots. When President Mahoney modestly attempted to retire from office, he placed the name of Father Frank Harkins in nomination. A committee headed by Bernie and John "Kewpie" Kilroy, grid luminaries and coaches, assisted by Paul Donovan and Vin Roberts, escorted Father Harkins to the platform where he declined the honor and moved the election of President Mahoney to another term. The motion was carried unanimously.

Other officers are Father Jimmy McManus, vice-president; Bob Buck, treasurer; George Donaldson as permanent secretary, and John O'Hare as sergeant at arms.

"Hecka" O'Hare is back in the Navy as a lieutenant commander in the recruiting service at Federal Building, Boston.

Al Taylor, who is living at 52 Redlands road, West Roxbury, is teaching at the Veterans' High School at the High School of Commerce.

"Vit" Kundicz, attached to the Intelligence Department of the Navy during the war, has remained with the department in Washington as a civilian.

Bob Hughes, who used to toss the passes for the Chestnut Hill Tigers, the lunch hour tag football phenoms way back when, married Virginia Graham, of Chestnut Hill, at St. Ignatius' Church on January 25. They will make their home at Bradford court, Newton, after a honeymoon trip to Nassau.

J. Arthur Dean, whose height was exceeded by his friendliness, writes from Plainville, Michigan, with a pledge for the Alumni Drive and to tell us that he attended the B.C.—Michigan State game. He sends regards to all his classmates.

Father John L. Crowley is at St. Michael's, Lowell. He has been ill and would like to hear from classmates.

Charlie Bourdelais, the soft drink merchant, is now with the Coca-Cola company in Providence.

Father James Coyne is in Salt Lake City; Father John J. Hill in Los Angeles; Father Neil Keliher in St. Louis; Fr. Edmund J. Hogan, S. J., is in Portland, (Ore. or Me?).

We would like better addresses on them as well as on Phil Rynn, who used to mystify one and all by writing backwards with one hand and in the ordinary way with the other. When last heard from, Phil was at Virginia Beach, Va.

J. George Wilchester, nee Wilczewski, is in Milford, Conn.

Henry Leen is now a member of the law firm of Burns, Blake and Rich, at 10 Postoffice sq., Boston.

Seen at the dinner for the first time in some years were Dan Healy, Keelan Milbury, Jim Good and Leo C. Haley, whose courtly manner of offering some one else's seat to women passengers on the Commonwealth avenue cars enlivened many a trip.

George Lordan, the Cambridge attorney, was a welcome addition to the large crowd.

Others who attended included, Henry Kievenaar; Bill Connolly, of the Secret Service; Attorney Bill LaFay; Henry Keenan; Frank O'Brien, the school master; Dr. Art Morrissey; Bill O'Leary; Allie Dowd; John Gale; Joe Dolan; Dr. Leo O'Connell; Henry Cook; John Donahue; Father Paul McManus; past president Gene McLaughlin, obviously enjoying the discomfiture of those struck by the election lightning; Jim Alphen; Harry Chisholm; John Mungovan; Father Joe Mahoney; Father Chick Glennon; Father Harry Butler; A. Barr Dolan and your reporter.

The Class extends its condolences to Dan Healy whose father died shortly before Christmas. Dan is engaged in personnel work at the Boston Navy Yard.

John Dolan is head of the Math department at Biddeford High School in Maine.

Still at St. Monica's in South Boston is Father Joe Boyle.

Jim Regan is Assistant Purchasing Agent of the Eastern Mass. Street Railway in Boston.

JEREMIAH J. MCCARTHY

61 Sycamore Avenue, Brockton

☞ 1930 enjoyed a pleasant dinner at the Hotel Bostonian on January 30 with 42 classmates present. In retrospect it seems that there were two chairmen with Tom Kelly and Father Luke McGowan in turn performing their duties capably.

Father John Ryan, S. J., graciously conveyed the greetings of the College president, Father Keleher, S. J., to the group. He also put in a plug for the Institute of Adult Education of which he is in charge at the College. Jerry McCarthy succeeded Tom Kelly as president. Following the wishes of those present, two were elected to the combined office of secretary-treasurer, Mr. and Mrs. John Grandfield. Joe Kerrigan was elected sergeant-at-arms, a newly created office. Joe's first act in office was to eject himself from the meeting.

John Groden has been admitted to partnership in the law firm of Withington, Cross, Park and McCann, Boston.

Judge John Connelly expressed his appreciation of parliamentary procedure as evidenced during the evening. Congratulations to Jim Langan who was appointed a special justice last month in the Middleboro District.

Jack Dwyer, N. E. representative for the Buffalo Insurance Company, living in Brookline, cut short some business in Pittsfield in order to be present. Frank Bradley is a sales engineer with the James H. Also seen at the dinner: Joe Kerigan, Frank Geary, Joe Whitehead, Arthur Lohan and Jack Hayes.

Joe Pzenny is teaching in the Salem School system.

Although the information appeared in the November "News" Jerry McCarthy insisted that the Class be told again about the birth of Robert Emmet to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mahony.

Add to class statistics a marriage and two engagements: Charlie Harrington was married the latter part of December to the former Elizabeth J. Magovern of Cambridge. Fred Lyons is engaged to Miss Ramona Desmond of Roslindale, and from Washington, D. C. comes the announcement of Bill Trainor's engagement to Miss Agnes Rose Drew. Congratulations!

HENRY M. LEEN

☞ Your reporter returns after an absence of four years. Aware of the guarantee given in the G. I. Bill of Rights that you can be restored to your former pursuits, John Gill stepped down without a struggle.

The Christmas mail included a letter from Father Ed. Cheney, S.J. who has charge of a mission at St. Mary's Church, Above Rocks, P. O., Jamaica, B. W. I.

Hats off to Eddie Aaron for the helping hand he so willingly offers to those who have any problems with the Veterans' Administration Office at Court Street, Boston.

After his tour of duty with Uncle Sam, "Jopy" Shea is attached to Judge John Connelly's office in the Boston Juvenile Court.

Certainly the only member of the class and possibly the only alumnus to become a hotel managing director is John Gill. His Hotel Bostonian, is fast becoming a favorite meeting place.

Our sympathy and prayers to John J. Sullivan II of Brighton, whose father died last fall. After service in the Navy, John has returned to the law offices of Hale, Sanderson, Byrnes & Morton.

Your reporter won't call this column complete without an emphatic reminder to all members, as yet unsubscribed, to send their contributions or pledges to the Building Fund headquarters without the least bit delay. Time is gradually running out. The College is in dire need of new buildings in which to house the overflow of students now studying at Boston College. Good wishes will not build the structures. The success of the drive depends upon each individual alumnus of the College. To date, the showing of the Class of 1943 has been utterly disappointing. In short, very, very sad. If the Alumni can't shoulder the burden, who, then, is left to aid? Instead of being relegated to the bottom of the ladder on the class standings in respect to pledges, our group should, by all rights, be up among the leaders. This huge venture requires the cooperation of all, the Class of 1943 included. Ours is a good class. Let us prove it.

 You all know that the Building Fund is still in progress. We are making headway slowly but surely, though the thing we need most of all is more pledges, and a lot more honest support from our Alumni.

At the date of this printing, the Class of 1943 had heard from, a mere 15% of her grads with pledges, for a sum of a poor $2,300. This does not look very good for such a large and active class.

We urge you now, please send in your pledge; we need many many more to make this drive a success. We want more than 15% of the Class to respond, we SHOULD have 100%.

June is rapidly approaching, the goal is not yet in sight, and it is entirely up to YOU Alumni to attain this goal. Make these few months count, get those PLEDGES IN NOW!!!

happy out in the great beyond. His new address is: 1026 N. W. 20th Street, Portland, Oregon.

Another man out of state is Phil Murray, now toiling in New York, doing payroll audit work; and we thought that Phil hated accounting! "Big John" Foynes is another hopeful barrister, now attending B. C. Law.

Art Jordan received his release from the Navy last month and is now resting while on terminal leave.

Seen running around town lately, was our New Hampshire businessman, Bob Winkler, now connected with the New England Tel. & Tel. Rumor hath it that our old Heights sportsman, Frank "Scoop" Farry will be marching the middle aisle come spring. Frank is working hard down at Georgetown Law School.

Frank Richards became engaged at Christmas to Miss Helen Fortier. Frank is "Your insurance man" and can give you all the dope on any kind of insurance.

Ed Madden became the proud father of a son, Ed, Jr. recently. Our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs!

P.S. DON'T FORGET THAT BUILDING FUND PLEDGE.

are to be elected each year, at least three of whom are to be from the Business School. This will result in a better representation for our Business men.

Stocking a Super Market

NEARLY six million American families daily eat food purchased at A&P Food Stores. To meet their demands the average A&P Super Market stocks well over two thousand items.

Such a complex job requires far-flung buying activities in national and world markets.

Take fresh fruits and vegetables, for example. Representatives of the Company's 140 field buying offices go into the fields and orchards of all 48 states to assure a steady flow of quality produce to A&P's customers.

Similarly, poultrymen of 41 states do business with A&P. The finest products of America's dairyland, cattle country and grain belt find year-round acceptance through the Company's aggressive merchandising.

Fishing fleets from Alaska to Newfoundland and the Gulf of Mexico pour millions of pounds of seafood into A&P's fresh and process market. Tea and spice trade with the Orient and with South America and the Indies for coffee and tropical foods highlight the Company's world-wide buying activities.

Throughout its 86-year history A&P has been alert to the importance of maintaining primary and supplementary supply sources for all foods, working closely with suppliers to improve production and distribution methods. The natural outcome of such a policy has been to provide consumers with foods of greater variety, better quality and lower cost. It has enabled the Company to return to suppliers a larger share of the consumer's food dollar.

Expert buying and testing facilities are characteristic of the business methods which year after year have enabled the men and women of A&P to do the nation's most effective job of food distribution.
